

Mini-and-Moo's Guide to London's City Farms

(Brought to you by Mini-et-Moi.com)

Name	Address	Phone	Opening Hours	Transport	Notes
Brooks Farm E10	Skeltons Lane Park, E10 5BS	020 8539 4278	Open: 10.30am-5.30pm April-October (closed 12.30-1.30pm) / 9.30am-4.30pm winter. Closed on Mondays.	Leyton and Walthamstow Central, then 69 or 97 bus	See a wide range of animals including llamas and Shetland ponies. There's also an aviary and rabbit warren. Other facilities include a wild garden, a café which is only open on Sundays and picnic area.
Crystal Palace Park Farm , SE19	Crystal Palace, SE 19	020 8778 9496	Open 10:30 - 12 and 15:00 – 16:30 on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and 12 – 16:00 on Saturday & Sunday	See the website for details of rail and bus services.	Farm Animals include Kune Kune pigs, chinchillas, goats, parakeets, small lizards, hamsters, gerbils, alpacas and shetland ponies.
Deen City Farm , SW19	39 Windsor Avenue, Merton Abbey, SW19 2RR	020 8543 5300	Open: 10- 16:30 Tuesday to Sunday and on Bank Holiday Mondays.	Tube: Colliers Wood/South Wimbledon	This community farm is on a five-acre site in Merton. Attractions include alpacas, small animals including ferrets and guinea pigs, pigs, cows, sheep, goats and a range of birds. There is also a riding school, café and shop.
Freightliners City Farm , N7	Sheringham Road, N7 8PF	020 7609 0467	Open Tuesdays to Sundays from 10 – 16:00 (Autumn/Winter) or 10 – 16:45 (Spring/Summer). Open on Bank Holiday Mondays.	Tube/BR: Highbury and Islington	Freightliners is a working farm with lots of animals and poultry. There is also an ornamental garden filled with flowers, plants and herbs. The farm grows fruit and vegetables for sale throughout the year. It also has beehives producing honey and beeswax. Refreshments and produce on sale.
Hackney City Farm , E2	1a Goldsmith's Row, E2 8QA	020 7729 6381	Tuesday to Sunday from 10 – 16:30	Tube: Bethnal Green / BR: Cambridge Heath	What's good enough for Charles and Camilla should be good enough for your little prince. There are lots of family events, and the cafe serves award-winning organic food. Animal attractions include a donkey, a goat, sheep, pigs and two Ayrshire calves. Also guinea pigs, chinchillas, rats and degus, and geese, chicken, ducks and turkeys.
Hounslow Urban Farm , TW14	Faggs Road, Feltham Middlesex TW14 OLZ	020 8751 0850	Tuesday to Sunday from 10 – 16:00 and Bank Holidays	Tube: Hatton Cross, then number 90, 285 or 490 bus	A variety of colourful and unusual farm animals including pigs, Exmoor ponies, chicken, goats, rabbits, ducks, geese and more. Watch feedings. The farm has a children's playground and picnic area and its own shop. There is an admission charge - £5 children: £3.50, under-twos free.
Kentish Town City Farm , NW5	1 Cressfield Close, NW5 4BN	020 7916 5421	Tuesday-Sunday from 9:30 - 17:30	Tube: Kentish Town/Chalk Farm	Four and a half acre site including a picnic area, farm animals and a riding programme giving young people access to horses. There are also pony rides on Saturdays and Sundays.
Mudchute Park and	Pier Street, Isle of Dogs,	020 7515 5901	Open daily 9:30-16:30	DLR: Mudchute	Making up 55% of public green space on the Isle of

Notes: Most city farms are free to enter, but encourage donations from the public. Please check opening days/times before making your visit.

Mini-and-Moo's Guide to London's City Farms

(Brought to you by Mini-et-Moi.com)

Name	Address	Phone	Opening Hours	Transport	Notes
Farm , E14	E14 9HP				Dogs, Mudchute farm houses a wide variety of animals, a riding school, nature trail, allotments, shop, education centre and cafe with indoor and outdoor seating. The space is also great for family picnics.
Newham City Farm , E16	King George Avenue, E16 3HR	020 7476 1170	Tuesday to Sundays and Bank Holiday Mondays from 10 -16:00.	DLR: Royal Albert	Exotic birds and a variety of animals, including rare breeds of cattle and shire horses. There is also a café and picnic area, and honey and eggs for sale.
Spitalfields City Farm , E1	Weaver Street, E1 EHJ	020 7247 8762	Tuesday – Sunday from 10 – 16:00	Tube: Liverpool St, Whitechapel	An urban oasis, the farm keeps a selection of farm and pet animals and has developed gardens and growing areas in every available space. Picnic area.
Stepping Stones Farm, E1 3D	Stepney Way, E1 3DG	020 7790 8204	9.30am-6pm in Summer, 9.30am-dusk in Winter.	Tube: Stepney Green/DLR: Limehouse	Home to a wide range of animals, there's also a pond where you can spot frogs and tadpoles. A small cafe, shop, and picnic area.
Surrey Docks Farm , SE16	South Warf, Rotherhithe Street, London SE16 5ET	020 7231 1010	Tuesday to Sunday, 10 - 17:00	Tube: Canada Water (Jubilee Line)	Landscaped herb, physic, vegetable and fruit gardens. Café Nabo on site offers healthy food. As well as the regular farmyard animals, look out for a group of bronze sculptured animals that can be found on the riverfront.
Vauxhall City Farm , SE11	165 Tyers Street SE11 5HS	020 75824204	Wednesday to Sunday 10.30 - 16:30.	Tube/BR: Vauxhall	Housing a wide range of animals, this central London farm also offers a riding centre, community vegetable and herb gardens, arts and crafts and picnic facilities. Guided tours available by arrangement.
Wellgate Community Farm , RM5	Collier Row Road, Romford, Essex RM5 2BH	01708 747 850	Daily 9 -15:30. Closed on Bank Holidays	Tube: Hainault, then number 247	Home to a variety of animals including cows, sheep, goats, ponies, pigs, chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, rabbits and guinea pigs. The farm also has a horticultural plot, a small conservation area, accessible pathways, a shop and picnic area.
Woodlands Farm , DA16	331 Shooters Hill, Welling DA16 3RP	020 8319 8900	Daily 9am-5pm daily (dusk in winter).	BR: Welling/ Falconwood. Buses – 89 and 486 stop near farm gate.	Offering a unique landscape of ancient woodland, hedgerows, streams and winding fields still managed by a horse and cart team. Farm animals include ducks, geese, chickens, sheep, pigs, pony, goat and a cow.

Notes: Most city farms are free to enter, but encourage donations from the public. Please check opening days/times before making your visit.